Connect after 3! – Parent Info Sheet

This program has been created to provide literacy instruction for EAL students in Junior High School. Activities and lessons will focus on building the learners' reading and writing skills, as well as providing a space for the students to work on their EAL skills and other academic skills. There is a younger sibling cohort to this program as well. The younger siblings will be engaged in activities to strengthen their reading skills.

Day: Wednesdays beginning October 22nd to May 13th (no classes during Christmas break)

Time: 3 pm to 4:30 pm

Format: In-Person

Location: John Martin Jr High School, 7 Brule Street, Dartmouth

BENEFITS FOR LEARNERS:

- Strengthen reading and writing skills through targeted literacy instruction.
- Build confidence in English language learning (EAL) while receiving academic support.
- Access a supportive environment with engaging activities, including a sibling group designed to foster early reading development.
